

Using electricity wisely helps your family save money and helps preserve natural resources such as coal. You can help by turning things off when you are not using them. Can you put an X on the 4 items that are wasting energy?